

Thinking Inside The Box.

Go Green with SmartWasher®

- bi-o-re-me-di-a-tion
(beye - oh - ri - mee - dee - ay - shuhn)
- The use of biological agents to remove or neutralize contaminants. Bacteria generally work by breaking down contaminants such as petroleum into harmless substances.
- The act of treating waste or pollutants by the use of microorganisms (as bacteria) that can break down the undersireable substances.
- The process by which microbes turn harmful material into non-toxic substances.
- The branch of biotechnology that uses biological process to overcome environmental problems.

“The World’s Best Selling Bioremediation Parts Washing System.”

Smart Washer®
The Bioremediating Parts Washer

● www.chemfree.com ●
8 Meca Way Norcross, GA 30093 ● (770) 564-5580 ● (800) 521-7182